

ADULT EVENTS

All events marked with (!) require advanced registration due to limited number of spaces available. Sign-up for June programs beginning June 4th. Sign up for July programs beginning July 1st.

June 5th

12:00-2:00 pm

Loops & Lattes

A crochet group that meets once a month to stitch and chat and drink coffee. All skill levels welcome. Recommended for beginners.

June 9th

5:00-7:00 pm

SKYWARN Storm Spotters

Learn how to report impactful weather hazards to the local office from the National Weather Service's meteorologist.

June 12th

12:00-2:00 pm

Crochet Class !

Instructor-led crochet lesson featuring a new skill each month followed by a small project
Led by Lindsey Ridge. Best for experienced crocheters.

June Project: Dragonfly Keychain

June 16th

5:00-7:00 pm

Lincoln's Library Builders

Drop in to help build, paint, and assemble a Little Library that will become a new community space for sharing books.

June 17th

1:30 pm

Garden to Plate: Edible Flowers

Fun, informative session on edible flowers, teaching participants which blooms are safe to eat and how to use them creatively.

June 18th

4:00-6:00 pm

Dungeons & Dragons

Experienced players meets regularly to enjoy collaborative storytelling and adventure through campaigns.

June 25th

5:00- 7:00 pm

Last Thursday Book Club

The book club is diving into A River Runs Through It by Norman Maclean.

June 26th

12:00-2:00 pm

Loops & Lattes

A crochet group that meets once a month to stitch and chat and drink coffee. All skill levels welcome.

Recommended for beginners.

July 2nd

5:00-7:00 pm

Lincoln's Library Builders

Drop in to help build, paint, and assemble a Little Library that will become a new community space for sharing books.

July 3rd

12:00-2:00 pm

Loops & Lattes

A crochet group that meets once a month to stitch and chat and drink coffee. All skill levels welcome. Recommended for beginners.

Youth may attend programs with adult supervision.

ADULT EVENTS

All events marked with (!) require advanced registration due to limited number of spaces available. Sign-up for June programs beginning June 4th. Sign up for July programs beginning July 1st.

July 10th

2:30-4:30 pm

Cookeville Ghost Hunters

Share their experiences with ghost hunting and the stories behind their most memorable encounters.

July 14th

4:00-6:00 pm

SKYWARN Storm Spotters

Learn how to report impactful weather hazards to the local office from the National Weather Service's meteorologist.

July 16th

4:00-6:00 pm

Dungeons & Dragons

Experienced players meets regularly to enjoy collaborative storytelling and adventure through campaigns.

July 17th

12:00-2:00 pm

Crochet Class !

Instructor-led crochet lesson featuring a new skill each month followed by a small project Led by Lindsey Ridge. Better suited for experienced crocheters.

July Project: Cup Cozy

July 22nd

1:30 pm

Sprouts & Microgreens

A hands-on class will introduce participants to the basics of growing microgreens and sprouts at home, highlighting how simple and nutritious these tiny plants can be.

July 24th

12:00-2:00 pm

Loops & Lattes

A crochet group that meets once a month to stitch and chat and drink coffee. All skill levels welcome.

Recommended for beginners.

July 30th

5:00- 7:00 pm

Last Thursday Book Club

Our July Book Club read is Secret of Secrets by Dan Brown.

Youth may attend programs with adult supervision.